

Alma Sarai (Associate Producer / Artistic Director / Hermia) is an actor and arts advocate from Burlington and has been a HUGE nerd for Shakespeare since the age of 12 when she read her first piece of prose at the Theatre Aquarius Summer Programme. This marks Alma's fifth season with the Summer Shakespeare Project and this is her inaugural year as the Artistic Director. She is so grateful to be working with amazing artists and being able to perform so close to home! Her fears include outer space, large wasps and ugly shoes. Other credits with Tottering Biped Theatre include A Midsummer Night's Dream (Hermia), The Merchant of Venice (Portia), Macbeth (Lady Macbeth), and Twelfth Night (Malvolio).
